Kuala Lumpur, 8 January 2024 – Allianz Malaysia Berhad Group (Allianz Malaysia) partnered with GivingHub, a platform that helps organisations give to charitable causes more effectively, launched the “Level Up Your Organisation!” programme, a year-long capacity-building programme, aims to transform impact organisations to become more effective and sustainable through a series of training and coaching sessions.

Three social organisations will be selected for this programme. The selection criteria include a minimum experience of two years in social field, have a track record of social impact work that aligns with the social organisation’s vision and mission, motivated to grow its team and organisation, as well as open to new change and systems.

The three areas that the participants will be trained and coached are Leadership Effectiveness, Project Management as well as Systemisation and Digital Transformation.

Head of Allianz4Good, Ng Siew Gek said “Many social organisations are remarkable at solving social issues on the ground but they may not have the capacity to scale due to lack of resources and finances to invest in the right skills, knowledge and processes. The programme therefore aims to equip the participants with the required skills to enhance their sustainability while creating impactful interventions on the ground.”
