Allianz Malaysia empowers women with Allianz SheSecures programme

Kuala Lumpur, 14 March 2025 – In celebration of the International Women’s Day (#IWD2025), Allianz Malaysia Berhad (Allianz Malaysia) proudly introduces Allianz SheSecures, a transformative programme designed to empower women in the country through professional development, leadership training, and a strong support network.

Allianz SheSecures equips participants with the tools and confidence to thrive in the dynamic world of insurance. Through specialised training, mentorship, self-development workshops, and industry insights, the programme aims to foster a strong, supportive community that helps women discover and achieve their life goals, inspires the next generation of diverse female leaders, and elevate female agents into leadership roles while driving greater inclusivity in the sector.

Allianz Malaysia Chief Executive Officer, Sean Wang said, “At Allianz, we are not just building careers, we are shaping leaders who will drive positive change, regardless of gender. We recognise the immense potential of women leaders and the significant impact they bring to the economy and society.”

“Allianz SheSecures reflects our commitment to empowering women by providing them with the resources, support, and opportunities needed to thrive. By fostering a strong community of like-minded women, we create an environment where they can inspire, grow, and succeed – both professionally and personally, driving long-term success and greater inclusivity.”

Beyond supporting female employees and agents, Allianz SheSecures programme welcomes women from diverse backgrounds including fresh graduates, full-time mothers re-entering the workforce, corporate professionals seeking a second chance, or aspiring female entrepreneurs.

It provides a platform for them to rediscover themselves and explore opportunities in the insurance industry. These participants will benefit from initiatives such as the Allianz C.E.O. Programme, which provides monthly financial support as they establish their careers.

In addition, Allianz Malaysia hosted the Allianz SheSecures Self-Discovery Evening for recruitment prospects on 11 March 2025 in Bukit Jalil. In support of #IWD2025 and its Employee Value Proposition – Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, selected women employees were also invited to join this event.

The launch of Allianz SheSecures in Malaysia follows a notable collaboration during #IWD2025 celebrations with the Allianz Asia Pacific in Singapore, under the theme 'Empowering Women, Securing Futures.'

The initiative aligns with Allianz's broader efforts to secure the future of its people, customers, and partners, reinforcing the belief that unity and allyship are key to building a more prosperous world where all individuals, regardless of background, can thrive.

Furthermore, women play a critical role in shaping Allianz's success, contributing across all levels of the organisation:

- 57% of Allianz Asia Pacific employees are women
- 46% of leadership roles in Allianz Asia Pacific are held by women
- 59% of Allianz Asia Pacific agency leaders are women
- 45% of Allianz Asia Pacific customers are women
